9. To construct, equip, maintain, work, and let or take on lease other railroads, and also tramways, telegraphs, canals, and roads, bridges in the Territories or State of Arizona or New Mexico, or either of them, or in any Territory or State adjoining either of them; and to contribute, by way of guarantee, money payment, or otherwise, towards the construction, equipment, maintenance, or carrying on of such works.

10. To acquire, hold, and exercise any patent, or other right or privilege, and to grant licenses to others to use and exercise the same.

11. To acquire, hold, manage, sell, and realize (1) any property or effect of the nature of real estate, mines, and mining claims in the Territory or State of Arizona or New Mexico, or in any Territory or State adjoining either of them; (2) shares or stocks, bonds or debentures, of any incorporation or company incorporated under or in accordance with the laws of the United States of America, or of Great Britain, and (3) personal property or chattels in Arizona or any other part of North America. Also to acquire, hold, manage, sell, and realize heritable property in the United Kingdom.

12. To take and hold any real estate, mines, or mining claims, shares or stocks, bonds or debentures, and other personal property or chattels, whether acquired wholly or in security, either in name of the Company itself or in the names of Trustees, who may be either individuals (British or foreign subjects) or a corporation incorporated under or in accordance with the laws of Great Britain, or of any of the States or Territories of the United States of America, or of any other State or Province of North America; and the titles of the Trustees may not disclose that they hold in trust.

13. To lend any sum or sums of money upon the security of real estate, mines and mining claims in the Territory of Arizona, or upon the security of stocks or shares, or the bonds or debentures of any incorporation or company incorporated under or in accordance with the laws of any State or Province of North America; and to advance money by way of loan or otherwise, with or without security, to any company, society, or individual with whom the company may have business relations, and to allow time for the repayment of any such loan.

14. To receive and take money on deposit at interest or otherwise.

15. To borrow any sum or sums of money upon bonds, debentures, mortgage, bill, promissory note, or receipt; and to grant security for all or any of such sums, and by way of such security to dispose, mortgage, pledge, or charge the whole or any part of the property, assets, or revenues of the Company (including uncalled capital), or to dispose, transfer, or convey the same absolutely in trust, and to give to creditors powers of sale and other usual and necessary powers, and also to raise money by the issue of debentures or preference stock.

16. To sell all or any part of the property or effects of the Company.

17. To draw, accept, make, indorse, and execute, and to discount and sell promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other negotiable instruments.

18. To buy or acquire the business, property, or undertaking of any other company or partnership carrying on any business which the company may legally carry on, and to pay for such business, property, or undertaking in cash, or in shares, stock, or debentures of the Company, or partly in each of such modes.

19. To sell, dispose of, or transfer the business, property, and undertaking of the Company, or any branch or part thereof, in consideration of payment in cash, or in shares or stock, or in debentures or other securities of any other company, or partly in each of such modes of payment, or for such other consideration as may be deemed proper.

20. To acquire, hold, and dispose of shares, stock, or debentures, of the Arizona Trust and Mortgage Company, Limited, and deferred shares or deferred stock of the company itself.

21. To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits or interests with any person or company carrying on, or about to carry on, any business which the company may legally carry on, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit the company.

22. To amalgamate with any other company in Great Britain or North America established for objects similar to any of those for which the company is established; and to acquire, hold, and dispose of the shares, stock, or debentures of any such company.

23. To increase the capital of the company, and to determine what preference or priority, if any, the holders of new shares, or any of them, are to have over the existing share-holders, or what preference or priority, if any, the holders of existing shares are to have over new shares; and also to reduce the capital.

24. To do all other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or any of them.

IV. The liability of the members is limited.

V. The capital of the Company is Seven hundred and fifty-five thousand pounds, divided into 160,000 A preference Shares of 5s. each, 320,000 ordinary Shares of 5s. each.
